

Membership FULL Terms & Conditions JUNE 2021

Membership of Dispex Ltd does not confer any rights regarding the affairs of Dispex Ltd.
All correspondence must be in writing and sent to enquiries@dispex.net
Membership is restricted to Dispensing General Medical Practices
All membership is granted at the discretion of the current Administrator.
All remittances should be made payable to Dispex Ltd and emailed to enquiries@dispex.net

Initial membership and renewal membership will be deemed to be effective on the first day of the month of the receipt of payment.

Where renewal payment is received after the lapse date, membership renewal will be deemed to be effective on the first day of the month in which it was due.
Where renewal membership is received prior to the lapse date, membership renewal will be deemed to be effective on the first day of the month immediately following the expiry of membership.

Where membership has lapsed, no discounts will be applied for any activity following expiry of such membership.

Where membership is lapsed and then renewed at a later point in time, discounts shall only apply from the newly applied renewal date.

Forwarding and completion of payment, for either initial or renewal membership, is deemed acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Access to the member pages will also be paused until a renewal payment has been made.

The membership records are held by Dispex Ltd, whose discretion regarding membership status is final.

Each membership is for a period of 12 months, whether on an annual Direct Debit or monthly Direct Debit. Cancellation of subscriptions requires a 3-month notice period and you will continue to be charged for the 3 months following your cancellation notice to Dispex. Members who cancel their subscription and who pay by annual Direct Debit will be reimbursed the remaining subscription minus 3 months' worth of subscriptions and a £35 plus VAT administration fee. If you cancel your Direct Debit with your own bank during the 12-month membership, you will be liable for 3 months subscriptions as well as a Dispex administration fee of £35 plus VAT
The Administrator has the authority to either suspend or expel members, without reason, by means of email to the last known record provided by the Member.

Where the Administrator or Companies with which Dispex Ltd has agreements, have reasonable cause to believe that members are selling on to third parties, stock on which rebates or concessionary offers have been made available, Dispex Ltd or the Companies concerned have the absolute right to cause forfeiture of such deals, including the right to repayment of any special terms or concessions.

Members may not enter into any agreement or contract on behalf of the group as a whole or Dispex Ltd in particular.

Forwarding of payment for either initial or renewal membership is deemed acceptance of these terms and conditions.
